Starting from Viareggio seafront near Galliano Café, take Marco Polo road and at the cemetery roundabout turn left in Via Aurelia towards Pietrasanta that you'll reach after about 9 km through Lido di Camaiore and Secco. When you reach the centre of Pietrasanta, and in particular the town hall square, follow the signs to Vallecchia and Seravezza, that you'll reach after 5 km. Your excursion continues admiring the Medicean palace, where the road curls along gentle rises leading through Ruosina to the fork for Pontestazzemese. Take your left following road signs to Castel-

Monte Corchia

nuovo and the real slope begins. This slope is regular and not so hard but it requires a good training and a good physical fitness. After 3,1 km from the fork you'll reach Retignano, and after other 3,6 km you'll reach Levigliani, famous for the Corchia caves, a natural cavern that you can visit all year round (for information 0584 778405 www.antrocorchia.it). After 2,3 km you'll reach the fork for Terrinca and after 300 metres turn right, following road signs to Passo Croce. Here a 6,2 km very hard slope is awaiting you, but when you reach the top at the end of the asphalted road, the fascinating views over the Mount Corchia, the High Versilia and the sea rewards you. Following the same itinerary you'll return to the starting point of our excursion.
